"I think we all know ourselves better than others. I see someone being fully themselves, with their own individual style and character, and love that."

"I think we all know ourselves better than others. I see someone being fully themselves, with their own individual style and character, and love that."

"As a woman gets older, it's more about style than fashion. A woman knowing herself more and more, and looking for new things, is getting into her own personal style, being more than just a fashion addict, I'm interested in that."

A woman's sari should be like a bordered -wre fence- serving its purpose without obstructing the
