they'd just walk around naked at all times. Being well dressed hasn't much to do with having good clothes. It's a question of good balance and good common sense. A little bad taste is like a nice splash of paprika. We all need a splash of bad taste—it's hearty, it's healthy, it's physical. I think we could use more of it. No taste is what I'm against!"

THE NEW INFLUENCERS

"What's my style is not your style, and I don't see how you can define it. It's something that expresses who you are in your own way. Over the years I have learned that what is important in a dress is the woman who's wearing it. Girls do not dress for boys. They dress for themselves, and of course, each other. If girls dressed for boys, they'd just walk around naked at all times. Being well dressed hasn't much to do with having... clothes. It's a question of good balance and good common sense. A little bad taste is like a nice splash of papaya juice. A splash of bad taste—it's hearty, it's healthy, it's physical. I think we could use more of it. No taste is what's wrong."

THE REAL McQUEEN

As the fashion world honours Alexander McQueen's legacy with a Costume Institute retrospective in New York, his close friend and muse Anna Wintour has created a special exhibition of her own: a series of genius, fantastical escapes and true loves. And in a unique project, we bring her together with two other women who inspired his work - Kate Moss and Daphne Guinness - to honour his indelible, irreducible creations.
